BELGIUM MAKES RAPID PROGRESS

(By Associated Press)

BRUSSELS, April 17—Belgium has made rapid progress toward industrial recovery since the armistice largely owing to the fact that the country has had no serious strikes. Says M. Jaspars, minister of economic affairs, he estimates that the national industrial output has now attained perhaps 70 per cent of its pre-war record and that its mines are producing as much gold as in the year before the war.

"About 70 per cent of our material which was taken out by the Germans has been returned to us," added M. Jaspars. "The money taken by the Germans from the Belgian treasury has been returned but Belgium has thus far received no indemnity from Germany."

At the beginning of the armistice, 800,000 of our people were without work. Our recovery has been made in spite of the fact that more than one-half of the Belgians who had to flee before the Germans are still in France unable to return because they have no homes here.

Belgian villages destroyed in the war are being rebuilt. Said M. Jaspars in the district of Artois 18 villages have been restored to such an extent that local administration has been resumed. "If the United States would do for Belgium what she has just done for Poland, establish a credit for her most of our problems would be solved," declared the minister of economic affairs.

KANSAS WOMAN A BOOTLEGGER

(By Associated Press)

PITTSBURG, Kansas, April 17—As the result of a raid in which officers found in the cellar of her house fourteen cases of whiskey, Mrs. Jennie Pozhun, a widow and mother of four dependent children, must serve an indeterminate sentence at the woman's farm prison at Lansing. Declaring that Mrs. Pozhun had given "false testimony" at the trial, Judge A. J. Curran refused to entertain a plea that she be granted a parole.

Mrs. Pozhun testified that she did not know who placed the whiskey in her cellar. Officers testified that the only entrance to the cellar was a trap door under a bed in Mrs. Pozhun's bedroom.

BALD HEADS IN ARMY OF POET

(By Associated Press)

ROME, April 17, (Gabriele d'Annunzio) bald head has set the fashion for the officers of his little army, many of whom have shaved their craniums and are endeavoring to grow miniature Van dyke beards as copies of the poet's chin adornment.

The Flume aviators have adopted the craze with greater zeal than other branches and called themselves "Iron Heads." Youthful officers in their teens and early twenties have shaved their heads and are wearing little pointed beards in an effort to look as much like the poet as they can.

Mixed uniforms of French bordeaux blue and Italian grey-green are worn by d'Annunzio's men with great pride.
